

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, September 29. 1703

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 6.

Vienna, September 22.

WE have Advice from the Turkish Frontiers, that the Grand Signior Mustafa, the Grand Vizier, and the Musti, have been Strangled in the Seraglio; and that the late Sultan's Brother Achmet is advanc'd to the Throne, after having taken an Oath on the Alcoran to keep the Truce with the Christians during the Term stipulated.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Sept. 28.

From the Camp at Riva, Sept. 12. The Duke of Vendome having caus'd 400 Bombs, to be thrown into Trent, (several of which burst in the Air, and the rest set fire to several Houses) is returning with his Army to Lombardy. Monsieur de Medavi who commands the Vanguard, is arriv'd here, and the rest of the Army will be here tomorrow. We are embarking the Artillery on the Lake of Guarda to be sent back to Mantua; the Duke of Vendome will likewise embark on the Lake, in order to be at the Camp of San Benedetto on the 16th. The Troops are actually at work in making the necessary Repairs, and putting Riva, Arco, Teno, Torbole, and Nago, in a better condition of defence; which Places will be garrison'd with good Troops. They write from the Camp at San Benedetto, that a Detachment of the Germans having pass'd the Secchia, had attack'd a Company of the Regiment of Normandy which were posted by themselves, but the rest of the Regiment that lay at some distance hearing the firing, came time enough to oblige the Enemy to repass the River, with the loss of several Men kill'd and wounded, and some Prisoners: That another Party of the Imperial Army, having fallen upon the Regiment of Croix blanche of the Troops of the Duke of Savoy, were likewise repuls'd; and that Monsieur de Narbonne Governour of Goito being inform'd that a Detachment of the Enemies was march'd by the way of Borghetto, to pass the Mincio and advance to Dezenzano, had taken a Resolution to follow them, to oppose the Enterprizes against that Post.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 6.

Ratisbon, Sept. 27. We have receiv'd a particular Relation on the side of the Imperialists of the Battle fought on the 20th near Hochstar, and a Letter written by a Bavarian Officer of Note at Donawert on the 23d on the same Subject, which differ extremely; for the Bavarians pretend they kill'd 4000 Imperialists on the Place, and took as many Prisoners. But the Imperialists own the loss but of 1000 of their Men, kill'd, taken, and missing; and say the Bavarians and French lost 4000. Yet they agree in this, that the Enemy remain'd Master of the Field, and of all the Artillery and Baggage, together with the Pontons for making a Bridge: that the Prussian Regiments acquitted themselves very bravely, held the Enemy in play a long time, and retir'd in Order; and thereby contributed very much to the Saving of the remainder of the Army.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 6.

Frankfort, Sept. 30. The Army commanded by Count Stirum lies on this side of Nordlingen, and has receiv'd some Cannon and Ammunition from Nuremberg: The French are on this side the Danube between Donawert and Hochstar. At the going away of the Post we receiv'd Advice by Letters from Swabia, that Prince Lewis of Baden having sent a Reinforcement of 8 or 10000 Men to Count Stirum, the Count has fallen upon the Marshal de Villars near Schwemmingen, recover'd all his Loss in the former Battle, and gain'd a great Advantage besides over the Enemy: After which he pass'd the Danube with all his Troops. Of which we wait for a more certain Account.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Sept. 28.

From the Camp at Brisac, Sept. 18. The Duke of Burgundy has given a Gratification to the Ingenieurs wounded in the Siege of this Place, and having given Orders for levelling the Works and Lines, and repairing the Breaches, he went from hence to day to lye at New Brisac, tomorrow he will be at Bettfort, the next day at Belancon, from whence he will get to Fontainebleau by the 23d. The Army which is now commanded by the Marshal de Tallard, is going into Quarters of Refreshment in the Valley of Weill, towards which the left Wing march'd yesterday, and will be follow'd by the rest of the Troops tomorrow; some Regiments are left in Brisac till the Breach is fully repair'd and the Garrison settled.

They write from Paris of the 24th of September, that the Duke of Burgundy arriv'd at Fontainebleau on the 23d.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 6.

Vienna, Sept. 22. On the 19th at 6 in the Evening the Archduke Charles, King of Spain, left this City, and lay that Night at Boven-Hollobrun. Both the Court and City were very Sorrowful at his Departure, for he is universally belov'd. When his Catholick Majesty took his Leave of his Brother the King of the Romans, they both express'd great Passion at parting; bursting into Tears, and hanging upon each others Neck for above a quarter of an Hour. The King was in a Caless accompanied by Prince Anthony of Lichtenstein and the Count of Baar. And his Attendants follow'd in 37 Post Chaises and Waggon, besides Servants who were on Horseback. Count Mansfelt, the Prince of Caserta, and the Marquess del Vasto, created Grandees of Spain, attended his Majesty to Hollobrun; where the same Dignity was conferr'd on the Prince of Lichtenstein: Count Mansfelt, as the Senior Grandee, introduced the other three, and that Evening they took Possession of their new Honour by standing cover'd in his Majesty's Presence. On the 19th in the Evening as soon as his Catholick Majesty was gone, the Emperor and the King of the Romans went to Eberstorf, where they will continue till the middle of October. Count Staremberg has sent Advice from Italy, that he had News that the Confederate Fleet was seen in the Heigh of Genoa the beginning of this Month; which is confirm'd by other Letters from Italy.

Dusseldorp,

Dusseldorp, Oct. 3. Yesterday the King of Spain's chief Harbinger came hither Post, and reports that his Catholick Majesty would arrive last night at Hildesheim, where he will rest to day, and tomorrow continue his Journey: Whence we reckon that he will be here by the 7th. Extraordinary Preparations are making for his Reception.

Hague, October 4. The Baron d'Obdam went from hence to day for Bolduc, from thence to go to the Army at St. Tron. Monsieur Slingerland died here on the 2d. Count Goes the Imperial Envoy is preparing to go to meet the King of Spain on his way hither: 'Tis not certainly known yet, in what Palace his Catholick Majesty will reside during his stay in this Country, but Honstaerdyke is look'd upon as the likeliest Place, because 'tis near to Oranje Polder, from whence his Majesty may most conveniently embark in the Maese.

From the Camp at St. Tron, October 4. On Tuesday the Duke of Marlborough with the English Horse and Dragoons that were employ'd in the Siege of Limburg, and 4 Squadrons more, left the Camp at Verviers and came to Liege. The Duke of Marlborough continued there yesterday, and this Afternoon joyn'd this Army, having been met at some distance from the Camp by several General Officers who attended his Grace to his Quarters. The Battallion of Guards and Collonel Row's Regiment of Foot, which march'd with the Cannon and Prisoners from Limburg to Maestricht, are expected here tomorrow; and the Royal Regiment of Dragoons with Collonel Blood's Regiment of Foot, which are appointed for the Expedition to Portugal, have Orders to march on Saturday next for Holland, Brigadier Ferguson being appointed to take care of the Embarkation of those Troops.

Whereas some Person or Persons (not being Sworn as Brokers) have Bought and Sold Whalebone and other Commodities, notwithstanding the late Act of Parliament to the contrary, which said upwarrantable Practice may be a Damage not only to themselves, but to the Persons by whom they are so employ'd, as by the said late Act doth more fully and plainly appear.

These are therefore to give Notice, That John Rodrigues Faro a Sworn Broker, who is very well acquainted with the Buying and Selling Merchandize, &c. particularly that of Whalebone, having made it his Business for 30 Years in Holland, and above 9 Years in England, still continueth to do the same accordingly. At his Lodging he is to be spoken with being at Mr. Perkins's a Barber at the lower end of Walbrook near Stocks-Market till Nine of the Clock in the Morning, on the Exchange in Exchange-time, or at any of the Coffee-Houses in Exchange-Alley any other time of the Day.

A Draught of the new Invention no way 13 Inches, all bright cast Iron.

This is to give notice, that the Author of the new Invention for making Chocolate, the finest and cleanliest in England, is removed from Dean-street Red Lyon Square, to Strapson's Court in White-Friers near the Green Dragon Tavern in Fleetstreet, where he continues to sell 12 d. a pound cheaper than any in London, all Spanish Nut rich 4 s. 8 d. plain 4 s. 2 d. Martineco rich 3 s. 8 d. plain 3 s. 2 d. Spanish with Sugar rich 3 s. 6 d. plain 3 s. Martineco with Sugar rich 3 s. plain 2 s. 6 d. to prevent your being impos'd upon by Counterfeits at his former Dwelling, it was nor is no where to be Sold but by the Author himself as above directed, where the Invention is to be seen. Note, That every one may be satisfied in what he proposes, the best is Sold 2 d. per Dish liquid, 14 d. a Quart without doors, Sundays excepted. He makes up or melts course for others, and makes it much finer than usual on reasonable Terms.

Memoirs of the Sieur d'Ablancourt. Containing a General History of the Court and Kingdom of Portugal, from the Pyrenean Treaty: With a full Relation of all the Battles and Sieges in the War between Spain and Portugal, under the Command of the late Duke of Schonberg, then in the Portuguese Service. With the Character and some material Passages of that Great General's Life. As also an exact Account of the deposing the late King Alfonso, and the Accession of Don Pedro his present Portuguese Majesty; and other remarkable Transactions, whereby will appear the Genius, Policy and Strength of that Nation, and its Interest with respect to Foreign Courts. With a Description of the Places of Strength on the Frontiers of Portugal and Spain, and the Portuguese Method of Marching and Encamping, &c. Translated from the French. Printed for Ralph Smith under the Royal Exchange, and James Round in Exchange-Alley, 1703. In 8<sup>o</sup> Price 3 s. 6 d.

ADVERTISEMENT.

JOH. Alberti Fabricii Bibliotheca Latina, sive notitia Autorum Veterum Latinorum quorumcunque Scripta ad nos pervenerunt. Accessit Duplex Appendix. Qua de Fragmentis & Collectionibus Veterum Scriptorum Latinorum, Monumentis Antiquis, Poetis Christianis, Ictis, Medicisque, & Scriptis quibusdam Hypobolimaïs differitur. Obiter suppleta ingens lacuna aliquot paginarum in Scholiis Eustathii ad Dionysium Periegetem. Huic Editioni Londinensi sparsim adduntur Editiones aliquot praestantiores Autorum veterum celebriorum, a Fabricio Omissae. Adjecta praeterea ad Calcem Procli Philosophi Platonici vita a Marino Neapolitano Graece Scripta, altera parte Auctior, & nunc primum integra: Edente eodem J. A. Fabricio. S.S. Theol. D. & Philos. Mor. Prof. Pub. cum sua Versione Latina, brevibus notis, &c.

The Dutch Gardener, or a compleat Florist: containing the most successful Method of cultivating all sorts of Flowers; the Planting, Dressing and Pruning of all manner of Fruit Trees. Together with a particular Account of the Nursing of Lemon and Orange Trees in Northern Countries. Written in Dutch by Henry Van Ossen the Leiden Gardener. And made English. Both printed for D. Midwinter and T. Leigh at the Rose and Crown in St Paul's Church-yard.

Uetus Cantharidum in Medicina Usus Internus, Editio secunda, priori Locupletior & Auctior per Joannem Groenevelt, M. D. E. Colleg. Med. Lond. Prostant venales apud Joannem Taylor ad insigne Navii in Cameterio D. Pauli. Price 2 s. Where the Additions are to be had alone for those that bought the first Edition. Price stich'd 6 d.

THE Case of Dissenters as affected by the late Bill proposed in Parliament, for preventing Occasional Conformity. By a Gentleman. Sold by A. Baldwin near the Oxford-Arms in Warwick-Lane.

THE Double Copy-Book, or, Instructions to Youth, whereby they may with far more ease than usual, be taught to write a fair useful and ready Hand, meerly by diligently tracing over first the Red Alphabets and Copies, and then copying from the Black at the same time. May also be instructed in the principle parts of the Catechism. Engrav'd by William Elder by the order and directions of the late Sir Charles Cottrell. The 4th Edition. To which is now added, a Plate containing all the Joynings us'd in the Round Hand, price 1 s. 6 d. or 16 s. per dozen, 12 d. or 10 s. per dozen, 6 d. or 5 s. per dozen. printed for Bernard Lintott at the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleetstreet, and Sold by John Harding in Newport-street, and Joshua Lintott Stationer in Newstreet by St. Martin's Lane near Leicester-fields.

L O N D O N Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Brittain.